One hundred fifty years ago, on the April 3, 1849, a hardy band of Irish immigrants greeted Father Edward Dillon as he arrived by horse from Batavia, New York, to say Mass for the first time in LeRoy. By decree of Bishop Edward U. Kimic, given on May 25, 2008, St. Peter's and St. Joseph's were merged as one new parish under the title of Our Lady of Mercy.
